EXPLORE THE WORLD AT 9,000 FEET

where the mountains are your classroom

At CSU's Mountain Campus, less than two hours up the Poudre Canyon, you can explore the relation between humans and the environment.

ENVIRONMENTAL HUMANITIES

SUMMER SESSION 2022 | MAY 29 – JULY 10, 2022

Study history, philosophy, and writing at CSU's Mountain Campus

Take 1, 2, or all 3 classes | Each course is 3 credits

HIST 355 – North American Environmental History
May 29 – June 11, 2022
Dr. Sarah Payne

E 403 – Writing the Environment
June 12 – 25, 2022
Dr. Matthew Cooperman

PHIL 345 – Environmental Ethics
June 26 – July 10, 2022
Dr. Ken Shockley

Registration

To register for the environmental humanities Summer Session, please speak with the professor to get approval, then sign up for Summer Session. Speak with your ASC about how it fits in your program of study.

Costs include summer tuition + room/board (billed separately).

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS
COLORADO STATE UNIVERSITY